ROUGH HUMOR IN CALIFORNIA—[From the San Francisco Chronicle.]—Not far from San Jose lived an old lady whose fragality had cutually the reputation of being miserly. She has a son, whose wild habits, dissolute ways and propensity for playing practical jokes will and propensity for playing practical jokes will any one. some day lead to the gallows or to editing a daily paper in San Jose. Next, but by no means least, in the trio whose names will be passed down to history through this receipt, is a worthy representative of the flowery kingdom, named Ah Skoot—the latter very fond of experiment. Now to the facts. Not long since a party consisting of a baker's dozen of San Jose ladies visited the ranch where the old lady, by raising chickens, keeps the wolf from the door, and drops an occasional five cent piece into the deacon's hat as he takes up the weekly contribution on Sunday. The ladies belonged to the "sewing circle," and the old lady determined in the fullness of her heart to decapitate a chicken, upon which these thirteen hungry Christians were to dine. Ah Skoot received his orders to that effect, and immediately repaired to the poultry yard to carry them into execution, (the orders, not the poultry.) How to catch a chicken in the day time was now the difficult problem which exercised the brain of the Chinee. About this time Jim, the old lady's son, hove in sight, and to Ah Skoot's interrogations answered in this wise: "Now, to catch a chicken in the day time was now the terrogations answered in this wise: "Now, look here, Skoot, you jest git some corn, and I'll go and git the gun, and I'll tell you what to do then.

The necessary articles were duly procured. The hopeful James had loaded the gun plum up to the muzzle, and telling Skoot to throw down some corn, about two hundred chickens down some corn, about two hundred chickens put in an appearance. Now the Chinaman, as before stated, was quite fond of experiments, and reaching for the gun he took aim at a noble rooster, who, towering above the others in the pride of his youth and roosterhood, was entered by the control of the pride of his youth and roosterhood, was entered by the chickens put in an appearance. Now the Chinaman, as before stated, was quite fond of experiments, and reaching for the gun he took aim at a noble rooster, who, towering above the others in the pride of his youth and roosterhood, was entered by the chinaman, as before stated, was quite fond of experiments, and reaching for the gun he took aim at a noble rooster, who, towering above the others in the pride of his youth and roosterhood, was enthe pride of his youth and roosterhood, was entirely unsuspicious of the coming storm. It is perhaps needless to state that James immediately ensconced himself behind a large tree out of harm's way, About this time a report which would have done credit to a 24-pounder aroused the folks in the house, who en masse rushed out to the scene of the slaughter. At WINDOW GLASS AND PUTTY. rushed out to the scene of the slaughter. At first nothing was visible but smoke and dust; next about two score of chickens were rising and falling, floping and squaking. The ground was strewn with the mangled remains of about forty more, while the remainder of this once interesting flock were making for neighboring ranches to avoid another earthquake. But what of Ah Skoot? Did that mass of torn and dishevelled rags resemble the ones festive youth whose delight had once been to experiment? It was he. The kind ladies approached him and tenderly, oh, so tenderly, raised his head. They essayed to administer spiritual consolation from an old black bottle which the old lady had produced. By and bye the distorted features showed signs of animation, seeing which the old lady said: "Speak to me, Skooty. Oh, speak to me!" John raised his head and gave vent to the following: "Speakee! Wassy mattee, speakee? More brandy, more brandy! ----too muchee shooty!" It is perhaps unnecessary to add that John is now in quest of another situation.

THE HAWES WILL CASE.—The Hawes will to rank as a cause celebre. Horace Hawes, testator, was an eccentric old man, who died about a year ago, leaving a fortune of more than two millions, the bulk of which was devised to found a university. The site of the proposed building and grounds was fixed at A FARM, in Fauquier county, 6 miles below than two millions, the bulk of which was deproposed building and grounds was fixed at Mont Eagle, one of the choicest spots in the Santa Clara valley, where the deceased owned a great estate. The university was to include several colleges, in which a variety of industrial several colleges, in which a variety of industrial science were to be taught, great prominence being given to that of agriculture; but the whole fund was tied up with such ridiculous modating terms. Apply to A. B., Gazette office. provisos, stipulations and conditions as to le practically valueless. The best lawyers were of opinion that the property of the erratic tes-tator would eventually go to his heirs, as provided in his will, on account of the inability of the State trustees to carry out the cumbrous conditions with which the estate was burdened-Hawes had been an abusive husband as well as a miser, and had unnaturally deprived his wife and children of anything but the smallest possible pitance from his great property. Mrs. payment of taxes promptly; and I am compelled payment of taxes promptly; and I am compelled to settle with the Auditor. The unpaid taxes for Hawes contested the will on the ground of her husband's insanity, and during the long trial which has just closed, it was proved that the deceased millionaire was, to use the mildest expression, a monomaniac, his chief anxiety being that of coming to poverty or dying by poison. The jury decided in favor of the widow, who gains for herself and children a great fortune. The deceased miser, if he could look back and see how his wire drawn and complicated will has fared, would be ready to rend the granite tomb in which he was carefully enclosed according to his own express directions. Horace Hawes was author of the Registry Laws of California, a famous piece of complex legislation, of which it was said that it could be understood by no man but its framer, and that he had forgotton how to construe it.

THE "SILVER RULE."-You all know the golden rule: "Do unto others as you would wish them to do unto you." Here is a rule which is almost a part of the golden rule, but which we will put by itself, and because of its value, call it the Silver Rule:" "Think and say all you can of the good qualities of others; forget and keep silent concerning their bad qualities." You cannot conceive how much such a course will lighten your own happiness, and raise you in the esteem of your companions. Did you ever think any more of a boy or girl because he or she found fault with others. Never call your schoolmates or playmates ugly dies' and children's cloaks, all colors. Furs made or cross to their faces nor behind their backs. and repaired in the best manner. If they are ugly, or stingy, or cross, it does not make them better for you to talk or think about it, while it makes you love to dwell upon the faults of others, and causes your own soul to grow smaller, and become like the foul bird GUNS! that prefers carrion for food. Rather tell all the good you can, and try to think of some good quality of your mates.

MEDICAL.

Baltimore Lock Hospital DR. JOHNSTON, Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspdpeia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN.

Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant interest, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to extacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence. MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentle-man, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician. ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders lift miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper a dulg encies. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Lossof Procreative Power Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption Decay and Death.

what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain prac-tice, already described, a habit frequently learn-ed from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplat-

MARRIAGE. Reflect that a sound mind and body are the Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness, Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the me'ancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When e misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure inds that he has imbibed the seeds of this pain all disease, it too often happens that an ill-times ense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from educa-tion and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, pro-gressing with frightful rapidity till at leat the ters him from applying to those who, from educagressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the consitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigorand Happiness in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh whence no traveller returns." in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
